

Monday 27 March

08:45	Registration (Pitt Rivers Museum)
09:15	Introduction	Sarah Lewington and Richard Peto
	Smoking and second-hand smoke	Chair: Rory Collins
	70-year follow-up of Richard Doll's 1951 prospective study of smoking and death in British doctors	Hongchao Pan
	Million Women Study: smoking and second-hand smoke (in memory of Valerie Beral)	Richard Peto
	The association of mortality with second hand smoking in NZ: full population cohort studies 1981-84, 1996-99 and 2006-11	Tony Blakely
	Richard Doll Consortium preliminary (2019-20) findings on second-hand smoke	Stephanie Ross
	Discussion and future collaboration

10:45 Coffee break

11:15	Dietary factors	Chair: Mike Gaziano
	Background to Richard Doll Consortium (RDC) analyses of 12 dietary factors	RDC Diet Collaboration Potential biases in prospective studies of dietary factors:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Publication bias • Reverse causality • Imprecision of dietary information (regression dilution) • Imprecision of confounder information (residual and un-measured confounding)
	Cohort Profile: Japan Public Health Center-based (JPHC) Prospective Study	Norie Sawada

12:30 Lunch

13:15	RDC results: presentations and discussions
	Cohort profile: BangladEsh Longitudinal Investigation of Emerging Vascular Events (BELIEVE) study	Emanuele DiAngelantonio

14:45 Tea break

15:15	RDC results: presentations and discussions
	Discussion and future collaborations
	Cohort Profile: All of Us (US Precision Medicine Initiative) and Million Veterans Program	Mike Gaziano

18:15 Pre-dinner drinks, The Queen's College
19:00 Conference dinner, The Queen's College